

The Art of Stakeholder Collaboration

Key concepts and competencies for achieving common goals.

🕒 15 – 18 MAY 2018 🌐 SIEM REAP, CAMBODIA 🔊 ENGLISH

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Stakeholder Collaboration is recognised as critical to finding solutions to complex challenges of sustainable development. At CLI, we see Stakeholder Collaboration as the art of respectfully turning differences into progress. But as with all arts, there are skills you need to develop in order to succeed, to know when and how to use dialogue, and when to take action.

In this course, you will build your strategic abilities and implementation skills in stakeholder engagement, dialogue, and collaboration processes for high impact solutions. The training is based on the combined experience of our faculty and of over 2900 alumni from all over the world, active in the public sector, the private sector, and civil society. After this course you will be able to initiate and implement Stakeholder Collaboration successfully.

YOUR KEY TAKE-AWAYS

- ✓ Learn how to successfully implement stakeholder collaboration through the application of the 4-phase © Dialogic Change Model
- ✓ Understand the business case for co-creative stakeholder engagement
- ✓ Learn how collective intelligence, commitment, and ownership can emerge
- ✓ Produce a stakeholder network map to prioritise engagement activities
- ✓ Develop new engagement strategies to minimise unproductive conflict and a methodology to create sustainable partnerships

COURSE FACULTY

Dominic Stucker

Managing Partner and Senior Project Manager at the Collective Leadership Institute

Dominic is an action-oriented collaborator and facilitator who convenes diverse teams to address pressing sustainability challenges. With 16 years combined experience as a project manager, consultant, and researcher, he is thematically specialised in water, climate change, livelihoods, and regionally in Central Asia.
