

The Art of Leading Collectively

Navigating complex change with multiple actors.

🕒 26 - 28 JUNE 2017

📍 POTSDAM, GERMANY

🗣️ English

▶ Tuition Fee: €1.650

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course will help you implement more outcome-oriented and constructive co-creation on a day-to-day basis for yourself, your team, your organisation, and above all your change initiative with diverse stakeholders. It equips dedicated change makers in public, private, and civil society organisations with a tool for better co-creation. The dimensions of collective leadership can be learned and enhanced - individually and collectively.

- ▶ Are you starting a complex cooperation project, or are you in the midst of one you want to improve?
- ▶ Do you need to shift the mind-set of stakeholders toward collaboration, or to find new ways to overcome challenges?
- ▶ Do you need to arrive at tangible outcomes in a short time frame?

The tool presented in The Art of Leading Collectively - the Collective Leadership Compass - helps you to keep your collaboration journey on track and to find the necessary course corrections.

YOUR KEY TAKE-AWAYS

You will

- ▶ Know how to prepare for your collaboration journey.
- ▶ Assess where you are, define what is present and what is missing.
- ▶ Map the path, adjust strategies, and know what to shift, to strengthen, or to focus on.
- ▶ Convince colleagues and partners that leading collectively will ease the management of complex change.
- ▶ Take the content of the book 'The Art of Leading Collectively' into the practice of outcome-oriented and constructive co-creation.

THE BOOK ON THE COURSE

The Art of Leading Collectively

Co-Creating a Sustainable, Socially Just Future

by Petra Kuenkel with foreword by Ernst Ulrich von Weizsäcker. The book is a guide to collaborative impact for leaders in industry, government and social change networks.

Our world is facing unsustainable global trends - from climate change and water scarcity to energy insecurity, unfair labour practices, and growing inequality. Tackling these crises effectively requires a collective form of leadership. But, in a world of many silos, how do we get people to work together toward a common goal? It is a question that Petra Kuenkel answers in „The Art of Leading Collectively“. Readers learn how to tackle system change for sustainable development, reimagine leadership as a collaborative endeavor, retrain leaders to work collectively, and manage diverse groups through a change process that has sustainability as a guiding focus. The book offers many examples of collective leadership efforts involving corporate, public, and nonprofit sectors around the world.

WHAT IS THE ART OF LEADING COLLECTIVELY?

The world is interconnected. Turning the challenges of complexity, interdependency and urgency into opportunities requires more than passion, intuition, or excellent plans. Solutions to sustainability challenges cannot be found in isolation. Therefore we need to shift the way we co-create. Collaboration is not only paramount, it is the only way to success. Collective Leadership is the art of leading complex change in multi actor settings. It empowers leaders to navigate collaboration successfully. The Collective Leadership Compass is a practice-oriented approach by attending to a pattern of interacting human competencies in the six dimensions:

FUTURE POSSIBILITIES • ENGAGEMENT • INNOVATION • HUMANITY • COLLECTIVE INTELLIGENCE • WHOLENESS

The compass can be used to strengthen your individual leadership skills, to enhance the leadership capacity of a group of actors, and to shift systems of collaborating actors towards better co-creation.

THE COLLECTIVE LEADERSHIP COMPASS

Based on 20 years of experience helping people to collaborate successfully, Petra Kuenkel, founder of the Collective Leadership Institute, has developed the Collective Leadership Compass for action and reflection.

It is a guiding tool that empowers leaders and change agents to navigate complex settings collaboratively and implement more outcome-oriented and constructive co-creation on a day-to-day basis - across groups, teams, organisations, and corporations.
