The Art of Leading Collectively

Navigating complex change with multiple actors

Are you starting a complex cooperation project, or are you in the midst of one you want to improve?

Do you need to arrive at tangible outcomes in a short time frame?

NEW Leadership and Circular Economy

Implementing circular economy models in the organisations of the future

Organisations realise the need to transition towards a more circular model to meet the expectations of their stakeholders for a more sustainable business culture. This requires rethinking the organisation's business model, which in turn requires new behaviours and a new kind of leadership.

In cooperation with the Circulab Network, CLI provides a short course to learn about the concept of circular economy and the leadership skills needed in a game-based way.

Get in touch with martin.fielko@collectiveleadership.com for more information and course dates.

Accredited Collective Leadership Facilitator

Facilitate Collective Leadership core courses and guide Multi-stakeholder initiatives using Collective Leadership methodologies

Accredited Collective Leadership Facilitators are fully empowered to facilitate CLI core courses and facilitate multi-stakeholder processes using Collective Leadership methodologies. Accredited CL Facilitators may lead their own not-for-profit courses in:

- The Art of Stakeholder Collaboration
- The Art of Leading Collectively

This entails that in addition to undergoing the Certified Collective Leadership Specialist programme, they must successfully organise and co-facilitate their own course supervised and supported by an experienced CLI facilitator. Furthermore, they publish a reflective or applied case study on CLI methodologies.

Throughout all phases of the accreditation process, trainees are responsible for demonstrating to CLI faculty fluency with the Collective Leadership approach, aptitude for facilitation and coaching, and a capacity for personal reflection and growth. In order to become accredited, trainees must also embody values such as inclusivity, respect for diversity, professionalism, and a commitment to contributing to the sustainability movement.

Once accredited, Collective Leadership Facilitators can establish a Collective Leadership Academy through which they can market, organize, and facilitate not-for-profit CLI foundation courses. The Collective Leadership Academy, the Collective Leadership Facilitator's profile(s), and related courses will all be added to the CLI website.

NEW Stewarding Sustainability Transformations

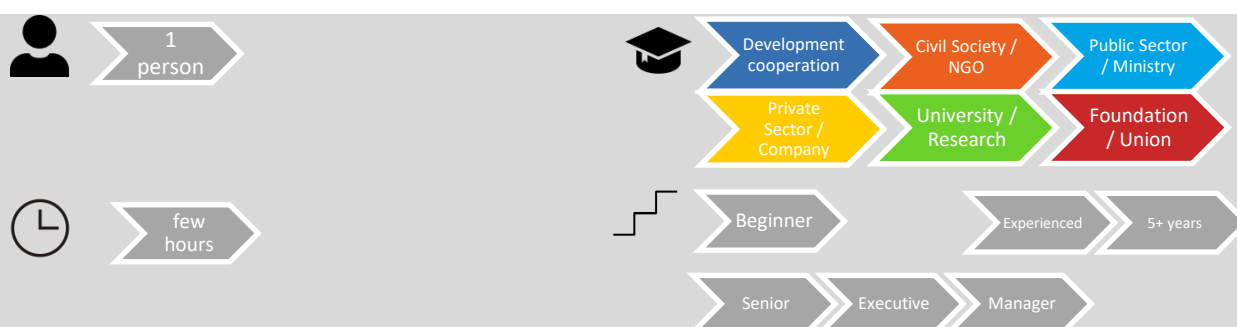

An Emerging Theory and Practice of SDG Implementation

THE NEW REPORT TO THE CLUB OF ROME

In the context of the world's pressing sustainability challenges this new Report to the Club of Rome presents a novel approach to navigating collaborative change in partnerships between governments, research institutions, corporations and civil society activists. With reference to the 17 Sustainable Development Goals and the Planetary Boundaries it introduces the theory and practice of Collective Stewardship as a management tool that respects the integrity of human and natural systems. Drawing on the work of transdisciplinary scientific scholars and seasoned sustainability practitioners, it shows how transformative change can be built on life's inherent tendency to generate patterns of vitality and resilience. This ground-breaking monograph shows workable pathways to stewarding patterns of aliveness in social and ecological systems at all levels of the global society. As a highly regarded author and expert in collective leadership, Petra Kuenkel inspires academics and practitioners alike to explore new routes towards co-creating responsible futures in the era of the Anthropocene, where the human footprint has begun to change the course of planetary evolution. She invites decision-makers, researchers, planners and social activists to become stewards of systems patterns, enhance their collaborative competencies and guide life-enhancing socio-ecological interaction at scale. The conceptual architecture the author elaborates builds transformation literacy and boils down to a practical guidance for planning and implementing interventions across all sectors of society. It helps bring about change through a deliberate combination of enlivening narratives, empowering metrics, enabling processes, multi-level governance, guiding regulations, and life-supporting innovation. This comprehensive book sets a new direction in the field of sustainability transformations and will become a foundation for planning collective action and achieving impact at scale.
